

Waikato's Stunning World Class Facility Tieke Estate - itinerary

Tuesday 29th April

L

Today we'll embark on a day of sensory indulgence, beginning in the quaint town of Cambridge. From here we'll immerse ourselves in the nostalgic charm of a charming vintage furniture store, where stories unfold amidst carefully curated treasures. Next, experience the allure of Tieke Golf Course, a world-class facility that beckons with an Introduction Talk and a delectable catered lunch at the fabulous on-site cafe. Next stop on our journey is the Inspirit Studio & Gallery is a spacious contemporary art gallery and multifunctional creative space based in Pencarrow Road, Tamahere. Hamilton. Inspirit was set up in 2007 by Jenny Scown who is the director and a contributing photographic artist. The purpose-built gallery shows a diverse range of artistic mediums. Photography, painting, indoor & outdoor sculpture, glass, jewellery, ceramics, functional art, wearable art, print making and mixed media. From there, we'll traverse the scenic route back, weaving through Leamington and Maungatautiri Rd, each bend offering glimpses of nature's grandeur, making our way homeward bound.
