

Matilda the Musical Overnight Tour - itinerary

DAY ONE

D

Setting the stage for a day filled with charm, culinary delights, and Musical theatre. As we depart, our first pause along the way for a brief respite, should the journey stir a desire for a stretch or a snack. We'll carry on our merry way through to Auckland stopping along the way for lunch of your choice. Our day then continues as we drive over to the North Shore to our accommodation. By afternoon, we'll make our way to the Northridge Country Lodge, a haven of tranquillity nestled in the picturesque landscapes of Orewa, offering the perfect backdrop for relaxation before our evening unfolds. Dinner on-site to tantalize your taste buds and nourish your soul. The highlight of our evening is a journey to the magical world of 'Matilda' at the Bruce Mason Centre. This theatrical marvel will sweep you into a story of imagination, wit, and heart, leaving you spellbound. As the curtain falls, our day concludes with the stars guiding us back to our lodge.

Day TWO

B

As dawn breaks, a sumptuous breakfast at our lodge sets the tone for a day of exploration and leisure. Our journey then takes us to the quaint Devonport Village, where free time offers a canvas for your curiosity. Wander through charming boutiques, or let history captivate you at the Torpedo Bay Museum, where the echoes of the past enrich your understanding of the area's heritage. As we bid farewell to Auckland, the enchanting streets of Cambridge beckon, offering a picturesque backdrop for lunch. Here, in the heart of this tranquil spot, free time affords a moment to indulge in local flavours and explore. We will then journey back to Tauranga.
