

Clandon Daffodils and Wild Exposure Day Trip - itinerary

Full Payment Required On Booking

Wednesday 3rd September MT, L

Our day begins as we head towards Ohaupo, a charming rural town in the Waikato, known for its lush landscapes. We will stop for morning tea before visiting a renowned landscaping company, famous for its adventurous landscape creations. At Wild Exposure, Gary will share insights into the geology of local rock sources and the unique design style they inspire. Next, we will enjoy a delicious catered lunch at Camarosa, an elegant yet relaxed café. In the afternoon, we'll visit Clandon Daffodils in Gordonton, where we'll explore the stunning grounds in our gumboots, ensuring a safe and enjoyable experience. A beautiful bunch of daffodils will be yours to take home as a memento of the day. As our journey concludes, we'll be dropped off, feeling refreshed, inspired, and connected to the natural beauty of this enchanting region.

Remember to bring along some sturdy boots or gumboots
