

Raglan Cruise Day Trip 2025 - itinerary

Full Payment Required on Booking.

Wednesday 3rd December MT, L

Join us on a journey to the pretty seaside town of Raglan, where we'll stop along the way for a delightful morning tea before boarding the Wahinemoe houseboat. This is the perfect venue to experience the spectacular beauty of Raglan's Whaingaroa Harbour, with its amazing views and fascinating geology waiting to be discovered. Get ready to relax and unwind as we sail past ancient limestone rock formations and hear captivating stories from our knowledgeable captain and crew. Keep your eyes peeled for the bird and marine life thriving in their natural habitat. Whilst onboard we'll enjoy some Fish and Chips for lunch, giving you a true taste of the sea. So come and join us for a day filled with panoramic views, stunning features, and fascinating history, all in the comfort of the Wahinemoe houseboat, making it an experience you won't forget.
