Tuesday 28th May 2024

MT,L

This morning finds us leaving behind the hustle and bustle of the city, heading towards our first- activity of the day with a hearty morning tea, a chance to meet all the other mystery trip enthusiasts. Next, we make our way to a place of great vintage, sure to transport us back in time. A place of nostalgia and wonder, filled with unique finds and pieces of history. Here, we can browse and learn about the stories behind each item, and marvel at the craftsmanship and attention to detail that define them. Our day takes us further still, to a world-class facility that boasts stunning views and luxury. We are treated to an introductory talk covering this beautiful property and business. Then we will sit down to enjoy a delicious catered lunch. Following a lovely social time at this stop, we will take in a delightful smattering of colour diverse and widespread you'll be left feeling inspired after your days adventure.
