Wednesday 25th February MT, L

The day begins with ocean air, a beachside café, and a moment to spare. Sip on tea and taste delight before we set off on a journey in sight. Through winding roads, where waters gleam, a hidden garden awaits a tranquil dream. Lilies floating, blossoms bright, as nature's beauty fills your sight. A high tea awaits pure delight, where the finest treats await your bite. Golden nectar, nature's gold, as bees work wonders, stories told. Watch them buzzing, marvel at their art, and taste their hone a sweet start. Then, with heart's content, we say farewell to the garden, where nature's magic prevails. The journey continues, but the memory stays this day, filled with light, laughter, and peace, in the warm embrace of nature's grace.
